BEAUTY AND WISDOM OF MYSTIC LAND IS PRESENTED

'In a Persian Garden' Is Well Received by a Large Crowd
at Verdugo Woodlands

By CORINNE E. ORFF
An hour of enchantment in the mystic land of Omar Khayyam, full of the beauty and wisdom of his teachings from the time the soft music of the flute was heard in the distance until the last words of the old prophet were given, describes in a few words the elaborate production of "In a Persian Garden," which was presented under the auspices of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club by members of the California Opera company, at Verdugo Woodlands Saturday night.
Dr. Ameen U. Fareed, who resides in Selvas de Verdugo, and is a recognized authority on the texts and interpretations of Omar Khayyam, gave the prologue. Those of the audience, which numbered about 1000 persons, who followed his suggestion of closing their eyes for a moment and transporting themselves to the land in which the story of the Rubaiyat was laid, were not at all sure but that they were still visionizing when the curtains were drawn, for such a beautiful and awe-inspiring scene had never before been witnessed in Glendale. The lighting effects were beautiful, thrown as they were from behind the trees upon the Denishawn dancers in the background and upon the other members of the cast in the foreground.

Members of Cast
The words of "In a Persian Garden," which was a song cycle for four solo voices and ensemble, were selected from the Rubaiyat and set to music by Liza Lehmann. The members of the cast included the following:

Harry White Home, of Spanish Design, Nearing Completion

The new $20,000 home of Harry White, local tractor man, is now nearing completion by Contractor G. W. Calkins at the corner of Jackson and Doran and the White family is hopeful of being able to move in before November.
One of the features of the property will be beautiful landscape gardening in the patio. This will contain banana, rubber trees and other tropical plants. It will be somewhat similar to the courtyard at Ramona's home at San Diego.

The residence itself is designed strictly in the Spanish style of architecture. It contains twelve rooms, each of which is being beautifully finished in hardwood with the exception of the bathroom which is of tile.
The billiard room is being completed in a "jazz finish" similar to the interior of the Glendale theatre. This room will contain a cue rack, n'everything.

Brick Store Building at Broadway and Louise

Architect Alfred F. Priest of 1422 North Central avenue is taking bids for the erection of a one-story brick store building for the northwest corner of Broadway and Louise street. Lucy P. Knott is the owner. There will be three store rooms and the 50-foot frontage will be finished in old gold and ivory face brick.

BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED

Upon learning of the engagement of Miss Marion R. Grigg of Glendale to Willard Keeth of Pasadena the former was presented with a magnificent floral basket last Friday by a group of friends at the main office of the Union Oil company in Los Angeles, where she is employed. Miss Grigg has been a resident of Glendale for about a year and a half, coming here from Philadelphia, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Grigg of 319 West Wilson avenue. The exact date of the wedding has not as yet been announced, but it is understood that it will not be for several months.

TOLD TO REMOVE WEEDS

Notices are being sent to property owners to remove weeds from vacant lots by the street superintendent. Failure to comply with these notices will subject violators to the penalties provided in the city ordinance effective September 12, which include a fine of $100.

Marian E. Warren's Cat Full of Dignity, If Not More, Claim

"The civilized and domestic cat who lives over at 640 North Maryland avenue, has been raised in the way she should go," remarked Marian E. Warren, commenting upon the press agenting J. F. O'Neill's cat Fluff got in a recent issue of the Glendale Evening News.
"My cat is sedate, Christian and dignified as well as alert, alive to her responsibilities and filled with the gratitude and grace of her sex," she continued. "She has been advised that it is not merciful to murderously slay and strew all over the surrounding lots five gophers, three butcher birds and one ground squirrel in one day, thus depriving all other cats in the neighborhood of their legitimate calling and income."
"In addition to her record, which bears a notary's seal, she brought in several baby rabbits and laid them down unharmed at our feet. We administered a spanking and a lecture, and ourselves carried the little pets to safety. This intelligent cat at once saw the light and now rests on her laurels as exterminator in chief of gophers only, but expects to establish an entirely new record as soon as the gopher season opens."
"Mrs. Cat advertised for a temporary home only and found it at once through The Evening News. She has gone to stay over on Patterson avenue until the return of her owner."
"I hope that she can impart some lessons of dignity and restraint to the Fluff of 324 West Arden avenue should they chance to meet."

Two Women Journey From New Jersey to This City by Auto

Mrs. Anna Sharp and Miss Martha M. Emley of Mt. Holly, New Jersey, terminated a transcontinental automobile tour by reaching Glendale on Friday afternoon. They left Mt. Holly, New Jersey, on July 19, and have enjoyed a most remarkable trip. There were no accidents, no automobile troubles, no unpleasantness worth mentioning. They made no efforts to break records, but made it their business to get all the enjoyment possible out of the trip and they feel that they accomplished their purpose. They drove a Franklin and are enthusiastic over its performance. Their route included Philadelphia, Gettysburg, Hagerstown, Wheeling, Indianapolis, Chicago Heights, Aurora, West Lincoln Highway to Cheyenne, Yellowstone Park, Butte, Spokane, Vancouver, B. C., Olympic Highway to Portland, Columbia River Drive, inland route to San Francisco, Yosemite, down through Fresno, Bakersfield and on to Glendale.

They like Glendale and may spend the winter here. Mrs. Sharp has a cousin, Mrs. W. F. Tower, residing at 328 North Maryland avenue. Miss Emley owns a valuable farm near Mt. Holly that has been in the family since 1637 without the title changing family name once in that long period. No matter how badly she gets the California fever it is doubtful if she parts with this family property.

Anita Fletcher Is Chosen as President of Philathea Class

The members of the Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church held a business meeting Friday night at the church building, at which time new officers were elected as follows:

Anita Fletcher, president; Jeanette Heidemann, vice president; Gertrude Heidemann, recording secretary; Ella Dockter, class secretary; Helen Jenkins, treasurer. The retiring officers are Josephine Rettberg, president; Gladys Levy, vice president; Ruth Hall, recording secretary; Phyllis Baker, class secretary; Ella Dockter, treasurer.

This class has been organized for about a year and has a membership of about thirty-five, with Mrs. C. L. Nelson as teacher. The remainder of the evening was given over to games.

CHASE RAND BADLY HURT

The many friends of Chase Rand, former old-time resident of this city and who is now living in Los Angeles, will be sorry to hear that he is in a serious condition in a Los Angeles hospital as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident last Friday morning. According to his mother, Mrs. Alice Rand of 110 South Isabel street, he was alighting from a street car when he was knocked to the pavement by a machine which failed to stop at the rear of the car. In the mixup Mr. Rand received two broken legs and numerous minor injuries.

The victim of the accident is well-known to most of the older residents of Glendale, he having lived here several years prior to 1918. Upon returning from the war, in which he served in France, Mr. Rand made his home in Los Angeles, where he had been married while in camp at Fort McArthur.

GLENDALE'S DAY AT LOCAL FOLK RETURN VALLEY FAIR TO BE TOMORROW FROM OUTING IN LASSEN COUNTY

Large Number of Local Folk Will Be In Attendance at San Fernando Show

Glendale Day will be observed at the San Fernando Valley Fair tomorrow, and it is anticipated that a large number of local people will attend. Cut flowers and culinary exhibits will be put in place tomorrow morning.
Paul Francisco Lupo, who is connected with the art department of a Los Angeles furniture store, was secured to hang all the pictures in the art gallery, which were put in place yesterday.

Besides the pictures there will also be exhibits of china painting and basketry.
Swamped with Exhibits
Mrs. Ella Richardson, general chairman for Glendale at the San Fernando Valley Fair, states that when the members of the needlework committee, of which Miss Daniels is chairman, endeavored to register exhibits in that department yesterday they found it advisable not to make any entries.

Mrs. Richardson states that Miss Daniels waited in line for over three hours, and that after seeing the number of articles of needlework which seemed to be just pouring in and which were stacked up like bargain counters, they decided that there would be not enough space to give the exhibits of the Glendale women due consideration among the vast supply already on hand and that as a protection for these articles they would return them.

However, there will be a delegation of Glendale women on hand to greet those from this city who attend.

To Represent Glendale
The women who will represent Glendale at the needlework booth of the fair on Glendale Day will include Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Mrs. C. A. Brandstater, Mrs. Margaret Biggs, Mrs. A. S. Chase, Mrs. G. Phillips, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, Mrs. W. W. Worley, Mrs. J. I. Wernette and Miss Eva Daniels, chairman of needlework. In the art department there will be Mrs. S. V. Phillips, Mrs. Evelyn M. S. Labadie, Miss Helen Sayre, Miss Cora Hickman, Mrs. G. D. Mason and Mrs. Elizabeth Elias.

Passes to the fair for members of the various committees will be at the San Fernando Chamber of Commerce.

C. of C. Booth Canceled
Insistence of a committee of San Fernando, Van Nuys and Lankershim bankers who have underwritten the San Fernando Valley Fair that Glendale contribute $2500 to the fund on two days' notice, or otherwise be unwelcome at the great show, has led Secretary James M. Rhoades to cancel the placing of a Chamber of Commerce booth in the show.

However, special stage service between Glendale and San Fernando has been arranged and every ounce of moral support will be given the fair by the Chamber of Commerce and Glendaleans. Tickets are on sale at the Chamber headquarters, 115 West Broadway, and many motor car dealers and others have exhibits at the fair.

Every person who can possibly attend is urged to do so as it is only by banner game receipts that the big event can succeed. More than $60,000 has been expended by the fair officials in order to make it a representative attraction of Los Angeles county.

NEW OFFICERS HONORED

The Yeoman picnic given in honor of the newly-elected officers of the Tropico Homestead at Brookside park yesterday was a delightful outing and a success in every way. Everyone came with well-filled baskets and dinner was served to the fifty members and friends at noon. The afternoon was given over to games and races, prizes being given to the following: Peanut races, (darene Woll and Don Danner; for skill at carrying peanuts on a knife, Charles Bruck; guessing contest, Mrs. John Lawyer. Violin music was furnished by Herbert Bruck. The lodge furnished the supper, one of the features of which was an abundant supply of hot dogs. The picnic party departed at about 6:30, declaring that all had had a very pleasant day.

VISITS AT COUNTRY HOME

Glendale visitors yesterday at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson near Monrovia included H. S. Burn, J. B. Doner, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Orff and daughter, Miss Corinne Orff, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter and little son and daughter, John and Margaret.

Bring Back Two Large Bucks to Prove Hunting Tales; Wilds Are Invaded

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Young of 400 North Kenwood street and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird of 627 North Orange street returned Saturday from a most delightful and enjoyable four weeks' vacation trip to Lassen county, in the northern part of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall of this city, who were members on the outing party, will not return to Glendale until next week, they having stopped off at Oakland to spend a few days visiting with relatives.

To substantiate their hunting stories to their friends the party brought with them two fine large bucks, which were the cause of several hundred curious citizens crowding their way into the Glendale market, where the deer were placed in cold storage. Having been killed early Friday morning the bucks were carried approximately 800 miles before being skinned and dressed, the reason for their excellent condition being that most of the trip south from Oakland had been made at night. Leaving the northern city at 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon the party traveled all night, arriving in Glendale shortly before noon Saturday.

Record Grows Each Year
This was the third consecutive summer in which the vacationists spent their outing at Lassen county, and each year they manage to bag one more buck than the record for the preceding year—three years ago the total was four, last year a quintet and this season an even half dozen.

At that rate more persons will have to be added to the party within the next few years, or the allotted limit allowed by the state government is liable to be exceeded.

Meet Indian Guide
The hunters traveled via automobile as far north as Juniper lake, where they were met by their faithful Indian guide, "Rube." Could here they all "piled in" a small wagon with their necessary camping outfit, and were pulled by a four-horse team to a point six miles up a small canyon "where no other vehicle of any kind had ever even thought of going." Using this spot as their camp headquarters the members of the party remained there three weeks, going out every day, however, in quest of game or scenery. Most of their hunting was done on horseback.
Among the many places of interest visited by the Glendale folk were Boiling Lake, Devil's Kitchen, Hell's Gate and Drakesbad. They also climbed to the summit of Mt. Lassen, which is recognized as being the only active volcano in the United States.

Pollock Garage Is Opened With Dance and Social Session

With city officials, a jazz orchestra and refreshments, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pollock held a reception and dance at their new garage, 110 South Pacific avenue, near Broadway, on Saturday night with more than 200 couples in attendance. The $6,000 building was tastefully decorated and the cement floor highly polished for the lovers of the light fantastic steps. Briefly, "a good time was had by all" and Mr. and Mrs. Pollock voted genial hosts.

William H. Reeves, city manager, made a brief address in which he complimented Mr. and Mrs. Pollock on the excellence of the new structure and the pleasing decorations.

VENISON DINNER IS TREAT

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fuelscher and daughters, Annie and Alice of 237 South Orange street, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Powell at a venison dinner party given at their home in Long Beach. Mrs. Fuelscher stated that on the way to the beach they saw a large automobile which had been damaged by fire the night before, and that on their return trip they came across a large truck from which an entire load of furniture, which had caught fire, had been thrown to the side of the road to save the truck. The manner in which the furniture caught fire was not known, she stated.

W. O. BRUESS TO APPEAR

W. O. Bruess and associates in the Pacific Coast Tire and Rubber company have requested a hearing at the Chamber of Commerce directors' meeting tomorrow noon. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock in the Crown cafe.

Contracts on Three Portable Bungalows for Schools Given

Bids for three portable school bungalows were formally let Saturday by Richardson D. White, city superintendent of schools. The Los Angeles firm to which the contract was awarded guaranteed to have them ready for classes in two weeks. Their price, which was the lowest offered, was $4031 or about $1344 apiece.

This figure, however, includes the erection of the bungalows according to the city building ordinance which requires a cement foundation. If they can be placed directly upon the ground the company agreed to rebate $78 for each bungalow. This would mean a saving of more than $222 to the city school system.

Calling attention to the fact that the new bungalows are portable and likely will not be kept upon their original site after new school buildings have been erected, Mr. White stated that he thought it desirable that the city should make a special concession in the matter. It will be taken up at a joint meeting to be held tomorrow night of the city council and city school board.

Luncheon Party; Ceremony to Be Held October 11

Another engagement secret was disclosed Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ingledue, 501 East Wilson avenue, when the latter entertained with a luncheon party in honor of her daughter, Miss Doris Ingledue, who is to become the bride of Ellis Everett Thomas, son of Mrs. Sarah Thomas of 338 West California street, October 11.

The bride-to-be has been a resident of Glendale for about ten years and was graduated from Glendale Union high school in 1916. Mr. Thomas has also resided in Glendale about the same length of time and graduated from the local high school in 1915. At the present time he is employed with the Pacific Mutual Life insurance company of Los Angeles.

Attractive Decorations
The spacious rooms of the Ingledue home were decorated with bouquets of pink and lavender asters, this same color scheme being carried out in the luncheon table decorations also. When the bidden guests had gathered together a game of bunko was enjoyed. Miss Ernestine Lyons was awarded first prize and Miss Dorothy Peart consolation prize.

A two-course luncheon was served at small tables. Lavender silk crepe paper strips were laid over the white table linen. The favors which marked each guest's place were pink rosebuds, the handles to which these were attached formed a shepherd's crook, in which was a small piece of paper with the date October 11 telling the day of the wedding of the young couple.

Program for New School Year Now Outlined by Hi-Y

Members of the Glendale Hi-Y met in the office of the local Y. M. C. A. secretary, Rex Kelley, yesterday to adopt their program for the new school year. The Hi-Y is an organization of high school boys standing for clean living, clean speech, clean athletics and clean scholarships, which functions among high school boys very much as college Y. M. C. A. does at the universities and colleges.

The meeting yesterday was attended by officers and leaders of the different chapters in the Glendale Union high school. A number of inter-group get-togethers were planned, allying themselves very closely to all school activities.

The first event planned by the Hi-Y is a "big feed," which will be staged next Thursday night at the Methodist church.

W. A. Horne of 221 North Louise street, former secretary of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., and a newcomer to Glendale, spoke to the boys on what was demanded by successful men and the ones they had picked to take their places and give an idea of what could be accomplished by working together for a common goal.

A number of the Y. M. C. A. groups in the grammar schools are also ready to start work this week.

Pink and white crepe paper and pink baskets filled with white asters were used for decoration.

Alex McVickers of 1119 East Broadway sold their home last week to Mr. Light of North Adams, who will make a two-apartment house of it and build three more apartments on the vacant lot making a court thereon. Mr. McVickers contemplates moving back to Highland Park, their former home. Mr. Light, although only a short-time resident of Glendale, having come here from New York state, has invested in quite an amount of Glendale property, for which he sees a great future.

THREE GIRLS ARE ACCUSED

Three girls are being detained by the police until $50 bail can be raised for each, it being alleged that they robbed the William Kyncey home at 360 Ivy street while both Mr. and Mrs. Kyncey were away at the beach. According to their statements they were members of a gay party attended by five young men whose identity is known to the police. A full investigation is under way, according to the police, and the girls' hearing is set for October 4 at 10 a. m. by Police Judge F. H. Lowe.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The senior class at the Glendale Union high school, number 150 members, met this morning and elected the following officers: President, Donald Cameron; vice president, Maynard Toll; secretary, Elizabeth Sternberg; and treasurer, Victor Colburn.

Another Industry Will Be Located In Glendale Soon

Concrete hollow tile will be made in Glendale as soon as R. E. Johnson, of the Hammond Lumber company at Redlands, can erect buildings and install machinery on San Fernando road, according to Pollock & Amoth, local real estate men, who sold him the property recently.

The tile to be manufactured will be made under what its makers term "the wet mix system." They state that it will not only be very strong and durable but waterproof as well. They call attention to the fact that their product is different from ordinary cement blocks. They say the new tile can be used for walls any place where lumber, brick or clay tile can be used, and that it is valuable in the construction of one, two or three story dwellings, apartment houses, store buildings, cellars and garages. One of their claims is that the new tile will keep a home at least ten degrees warmer in winter and the same amount cooler in summer. R. E. Johnson, at the head of the new enterprise, expects to erect a residence in Glendale and move his family here from Redlands before long. He comes to this city highly recommended as a progressive business man. He is unable to make an absolute estimate of the cost of the buildings to be erected, but it is understood that it will be well up in the thousands. Already Mr. Johnson is boosting for Glendale.

Official Opening of First Savings Bank Will Be Thursday

Official opening of the First Savings Bank of Glendale, an institution owned by the stockholders of the First National bank, is announced for Thursday, September 22, between 9 a. m. and 9 p. m. The commodious banking quarters at 103 East Broadway will be thrown open to public inspection and every one opening a savings account of $1.00 or more will receive a souvenir memorandum book with their name stamped therein in gold letters.

The escrow and collection department and the safe deposit vaults of the First National bank have been incorporated into the First Savings bank and the same personal service which has made a reputation for the older institution will be found in the new.

Following are the officers of the First Savings bank: C. C. Cooper, president; R. F. Kitterman, vice president; Ed M. Lee, vice president; E. U. Emery, vice president; William A. Goss, assistant cashier and secretary; E. L. Osborn, Jr., secretary; W. W. Lee, M. P. Harrison, George T. Paine, E. L. Osborn, Jr., William A. Goss, E. U. Emery, Ed M. Lee, R. F. Kitterman and C. C. Cooper, directors.

End of World Not In Sight, Declares Rev. C. Calderwood

The end of the world is not in sight, according to Rev. C. M. Calderwood. At the morning services of the Congregational church yesterday he remarked:

"We are not justified in thinking that the world will soon cease to be. The world has gone on for many millenniums and will continue for many more. God is not through with His world. He has been working on it for many thousands of years and is creating today as He did ages ago. Creation is continuous."

"The man who attempts to live in the past alone does not live—he is a mummy. The man who lives in the present alone makes a failure. It is only the future who attempts to live well for the future, who lives as he ought in the present. Why not Christianize the present? The present is with us just a moment and then becomes the past. We do not have the present with us long enough to change it. In a moment it is gone. The only way is to Christianize the future before it becomes the present."

"We are here to save the world. That is our Christian duty. We are living in a new age. There is a new politics and there will be a new internationalism. If we are to Christianize tomorrow, we must Christianize these. The world is getting better in many respects. The kingdoms of this world are becoming the kingdoms of our Lord."

Preparing Plans for Addition to Church

Architect Arthur G. Lindley of 123 South Belmont street is preparing plans for a Sunday school addition to the First Methodist church, of Whittier, three stories high, with offices, auditorium and class rooms. It will be one of the most modern plants of its kind. He is also supervising the completion of an auditorium for East Bakersfield Methodist congregation.

Douglas Fairbanks Picture Is Feature at Glendale Today

A comedy with heart interest; a love story with appeal; a tale of mad adventure; a chronicle of conflicting emotions set forth in a human way and highly seasoned with spectacular stunts and astounding novelties—such a story has Douglas Fairbanks presented in his fifth United Artists' production which opened yesterday at the Glendale theatre for a two-days' run.

This decidedly different picture can be characterized as an obstacle race for the heart of a maid. It is fittingly named, for the hero, madly in love with the girl who lives in the same apartment house with him, so loses his sense of proportion that he easily deserves the appellation of "The Nut."

Al St. John in "The Hayseed" adds more humor to the bill while Pathe News shows the wreck of the ZR-2 in the River Hull, the greatest aviation accident in history.

Conditions Better Since Prohibition, Asserts Dr. Crist

"The man who merely prays wastes his time," stated Dr. C. M. Crist in a personal message, based upon an epistle of St. Paul, delivered yesterday morning at the First Methodist church.

"As an example, I might mention the liquor traffic. All the saloon-keepers, distillers and brewers of the country were not disturbed so long as the people merely prayed for their destruction, but, when they worked and voted as well as prayed, victory came to their cause. We thank God that there exists not a legalized saloon in our midst," he said.

"The charge that the crimes of today are the result of prohibition are without foundation. Conditions are materially improved and will improve as the law is better enforced."

Kennel Expert From New York Chosen for Judge at Riverside

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 19.—P. W. Higgins of Los Angeles, manager of the Riverside Kennel show in connection with the Southern California Fair, October 11-17, announces that McLure Halley of New York will come to the coast to judge the entries here. Over 300 entries by dog fanciers of the Pacific coast as far north as Vancouver are expected in the show.

Secretary W. W. Van Pelt of the Southern California Fair was in Glendale last week in the interests of the Riverside exposition. He declared that the exposition will have exhibits that will outrank even the state fair at Sacramento.

One of the reasons given for the interest shown in the Riverside fair is that the greatest premium list in the history of the organization, $32,000 is to be provided. This means more competition and a greater number of entries. One of the features of the show is the exhibit to be made by boys' and girls' pig, bee, dairy and goat clubs, no less than fifty pig clubs already having secured space. The junior clubs will be housed in a special tent.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture and the State Agriculture Department will have extensive exhibits and there will be a dog show, rabbit show, poultry, bee and dairy show, an avocado exhibit, date show, largest goat show ever assembled, horse show, swine show, in fact, there is no department omitted.

Hundreds of horses will participate in the Riverside races, for the Riverside show is the last of the county fairs and the horsemen naturally assemble at Riverside in preparation for the opening of the Tia Juana racing season.

'In a Persian Garden' Is Well Received by a Large Crowd
at Verdugo Woodlands

McDermott, Miss Ruth Paddock, Miss Sybil Chase, Miss Ethel Thomas, Miss Anne Grieve, Miss Marian Matthews, Miss Katherine Clifton and Miss Marie Ward. Quartette music sung by the following soloists: Florence G. Davis, Bessie Hopkins, Cleo Bonfield, C. W. Emerson, L. Reese, Chester F. Rand, June Harding, Anona Kahn, Lila M. Walker, Miss Bowman, W. W. Hetherington, Anthony Pratt, J. R. MacKenzie, W.
Magginette.

It was through the courtesy of F.
P. Newport that the beautiful natural setting in which this production was staged for the first time outside of New York City was secured.

Gave of Their Time Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee, curator; Mrs. H. D. Thaxter, secretary, and Miss Eva Daniels, chairman of publicity of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, who gave so much of their time to looking after the many details in preparation for the presentation of this spectacle, are to be complimented upon the success with which it was met.

At either side of the grounds which had been cleared for the performance were booths, gaily decorated with greenery, butterflies and Japanese lanterns, at which refreshments were dispensed. Mrs. Spencer Robinson was in charge of the candy booth. She was assisted by Mrs.
Brahn Van den Berg, and the following members of the junior auxiliary of the Glendale Music club, Irene Miller, Frances Smith, Jean Robinson and Julia Robinson. Mrs. Colin Cable was in charge of the ice cream, cake and coffee booth and was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Diberni, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meadows, Mrs.
Bert Ward, Mrs. R. D. Angelica and Mrs. P. A. Hoffman. Members of the junior auxiliary of the Glendale Music club also acted as ushers and usherettes.

Appears in Person
A bit of local color which was added to the presentation of this musical event was the fact that Mirza Assad Ullah, father of Dr.
Ameen Ullah Fareed, and who is now in his ninety-seventh year and is said to be the oldest Persian in the United States and a resident of Salvador de Verdugo, appeared in person at the close of the performance and enacted the part of the aged philosopher in the giving of the blessing.

The singing, costuming, lighting effects and setting were the source of much favorable comment on the part of all who attended, which included many music lovers and artists as well as society folk from Los Angeles, Pasadena and other cities, as well as Glendale.

Five New Members Received on Sunday at Christian Church
The last services before the present
Christian church is removed to be replaced by a finer edifice were held yesterday. Rev. Clifford A. Cole occupied the pulpit both morning and evening.

"The Church and the Lame Man" was the morning's subject. Rev.
Cole spoke at length upon the relationship of the church to those who are in need and stated that its best gift was not silver or gold but assistance, both spiritual and material, and friendship.

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" quoted Rev. Cole at the beginning of his evening sermon upon "Some Modern Dangers to the Soul." He remarked that the great dangers today were forgetting God, choosing the "good" instead of the "best" and making success in this life a sole object instead of preparing for a richer life to come. He remarked:

"In these times we are apt to give so much time to temporal things forgetting the spirit."
Five new members were added to the Christian church: Mr. and Mrs.
S. L. Roland, 2927 Coronado street, Verdugo Canyon; Mrs. Clara McKee and daughter, Esther, 123 1/2 Louise street, and Mrs. Minnie Walker, 500 Raleigh street.

DEAR! NAUGHTY THUGS!
TOLEDO, Sept. 19.—Men of the underworld have gone in for powder puffs, rouge and lipsticks.
Sheriff Taylor today declared he found these "weapons" more frequently on men searched at the county jail here than he found guns, blackjacks and the deadlier sort.

"You'd be surprised at the number of crooks who carry nose shine removers," Sheriff Taylor added.
"Some of the fellows are desperate criminals. We've taken more powder puffs than guns from crooks that have been brought into the jail. Usually the man seems ashamed when the puff is pulled out of his pocket and laid on the desk. He always gives the alibi that it belongs to his girl."

Mrs. Laura Bardsley Summoned by Death; Hold Funeral Today

At 5 o'clock, Saturday morning, September 17, 1921, Mrs. Laura E.
Bardsley passed from this life into the life beyond. She was born in Ossian, Iowa, February 3, 1857. Her girlhood was spent in her native town. At the age of 17 she moved with her parents to Austin, Minn., where she met and married her husband, John C. Bardsley. They resided in Austin until 1894. Her condition of health being frail Mr.
Bardsley then decided to bring her to southern California. They located in Hemet, California, where they spent twelve years.

Fifteen years ago Mr. Bardsley removed his family to Glendale, locating on a ranch in the northwest part of the city. He has resided here ever since.

While California gave its sunshine and joys to her Mrs. Bardsley continued very frail and for many years has been a great sufferer.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, John C. Bardsley, and her only child, Mrs. Bertha B. Rockhold, the latter's husband and their three children.

Hers was a strong, cheerful, sunshiny nature; one that was devoted to principle; devoted to her home and family, devoted and true and staunch to her friends.

During her young womanhood she was an ardent, active worker in the church of her choice, the Episcopalian, in Austin, Minn. Later in life she became too frail to perform duties outside of her home.

It surely can be said to her, "As thou has been faithful over a few things I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

The funeral was conducted in the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn, Glendale, Monday, September 19, 1921, at 3 o'clock. It was her request that her body should be cremated.

The services were conducted by Rev. Julius Soper, retired pastor of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church, a family friend for many years. The Jewel City Undertaking company was in charge of arrangements.

William Malcom Goes to Downey to Attend T. S. Beatty Funeral

William Malcom of 210 West Palmer avenue was called to Downey last Friday on a sorrowful mission, that of attending the burial services of his brother-in-law, T. S. Beatty, who passed away at his home in Los Angeles Thursday morning, September 15, 1921. At the time of his death Mr. Beatty was almost 87 years old, having lived in Los Angeles for many years.

The deceased was the first cousin of Chief Justice Beatty of the California supreme court, and was well known throughout the state. Being a construction engineer he gained nation-wide fame several years ago through his many successes in the building of numerous gigantic engineering projects. A pioneer in far-western railroad development he built the first roads between Ogden and San Francisco, Sacramento to San Jose, San Francisco to Sacramento and several less important ones. While these roads were under construction Mr. Beatty was often in charge of more than 3000 men, most of whom were Mexicans and Indians.

Besides his various achievements in the construction of railroads Mr.
Beatty was for many years a prominent figure in mining enterprises in California, Arizona and New Mexico.
During his career he supervised the engineering of a number of the largest and most extensive mines in the country, most of which were located in this state.

Lying, Slander and Harsh Words Scored at Baptist Services

"The Sin of the Tongue" was the topic yesterday at the Baptist young people's meeting. The subject was discussed with much vigor under the leadership of Forest Jordan, leader for the occasion. Lying, slander and harsh words were denounced in no uncertain terms, but no special reference was made to current events.

Dr. Fred J. Davies, Baptist state director of promotions, spoke at the morning services of the church on "The Denominational Task," stating that being a Baptist implied responsibilities and duties which could not be overlooked. Announcement was made that the next Lord's Day would be rally Sunday and all present were urged to bring a friend to church.

C. B. Elliott, teacher of the young men's class, reported an attendance of over forty-five and expressed a wish that this might be increased to a hundred for next Sunday. Roy L.
Kent, superintendent of the Sunday school, also is looking for a large attendance at the next services.

Rev. E. E. Ford preached in the evening upon "The Price of a Soul," explaining the difference between cost and value and developing his theme along spiritual lines.

TALES OF MYSTERY, ROMANCE, DESERT, ARE RELEASED

Wide Choice of Reading Being Offered to Glendale Folk at Public Library

A splendid collection of new books have been released for general distribution at the Glendale public library during the past week. These include stories of the west, desert stories, tales of mystery and books to suit every taste, including the following volumes:

"Chess Openings," by J. Mason.
"Stepsons of Light," by Eugene Manlove Rhodes. A western novel through which runs a quizzical, philosophical humor, which sets it apart from most stories of adventure.

"The Enchanted Canyon," by Ho-nore Willise. A novel with its crucial scenes staged within the stuperdous walls of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

"The Mesa Trail," by H. Bedford Jones.
"Gunsight Pass," by William Macleed Raine. A story of how oil came to the cattle country.

"Desert Valley," by Jackson Gregory. An intensely interesting story.
Story of Open Reaches

"The Heart of the Desert," by Ho-nore Willise. The story itself develops into swift, dramatic crises, which holds the reader spellbound, but the strong, lasting impression of the novel is the healing power of the vast open reaches and the primitive life.

"The Bar-20 Three," by Clarence E. Mulford. Unequaled wild west atmosphere, coupled with tugged, cowboy humor.

"The Gray Dawn," by Stewart Edward White. A novel full of the intense excitement of that interesting period shortly after the first mad rush for gold in California.

"The Rose Dawn," by Stewart Edward White. The "Gray Dawn" of the dim beginning of the state colours into the "Rose Dawn" of hope.

"The Heart of the Range," by William Patterson White. A story of the west of old.

"The Three Eyes," by Maurice Leblanc. Mystery and adventure threaded with a delightful love theme revealing the creator of Arsene Lu-pin at his best.

"The Unseen Ear," by Natalie Summer Lincoln. In a Washington home an unknown man is murdered, while a woman who is deaf sits in the same room, unaware of what happens.

Death Curse of Voodoo
"Bat Wing," by Sax Rohmer. The death curse of the High Priest of Voodoo lurks over this story. The man or woman who found a bat wing pinned upon the door was thus marked and inevitably met a horrible end.

"The Film Mystery," by Arthur B. Reeve. Another Craig Kennedy story with its plot woven around a moving picture lot.

"My South Sea Sweetheart," by Beatrice Grimshaw.

"The Seventh Angel," by Alexander Black.

"Star Dust," by Fannie Hurst.

"Winners Take All," by Larry Evans. A story of youth, love, fresh, vigorous and moving. It begins in the open country of the southwest, carries you to the lights of Broadway and back to the people of the cattle country.

"The Cabin," by Stewart Edward White. The blithe chronicle of the building of a cabin home in a forest-girdled meadow of the Sierras. It is full of nature and woodcraft and the sheer delight of outdoors.

"The Roof Tree," by Charles Neville Buck. Interpreting the elemental life of the Kentucky hills.

"Rainy Week," by Eleanor Hallowell Abbott. A very delightful, surprising and whimsical book.

Love, Adventure, Intrigue
"Beyond the Sunset," by George Rothwell Brown. A thrilling tale with love, adventure, daring and intrigue in an atmosphere of a wild, carefree life. Colorful and dramatic.

"Helen of the Old House," by Harold Bell Wright. A stirring romance of American life today.

"The Best Short Stories of 1915
and the Yearbook of American Short Stories," edited by Edward J.
O'Brien.

"The Best Short Stories of 1916
and the Yearbook of American Short Stories," edited by Edward J.
O'Brien.

"Slaves of Freedom," by Con-ingsby Dawson.

"When Polly Was Eighteen," by Emma C. Dowd.

"The Gray Angels," by Nalbro Bartley. Power—the power to depict the sheer human drama of love and hope and ambition, and the fulfillment—is the keynote of this interpretation of the small, gossiping town and the Bohemia of the artist world.

"It's a Good Old World," by Bruce Barton.

A booster is a fellow whose memory has devoured his modesty.

EAGLE ROCK VOTES CITY HALL BONDS, DEFEATS PARK

And Now Big Question: Where Will Municipal Building Be Placed? News Notes

Eagle Rock voted $35,000 bonds for a city hall, but the question now arises: Where will it be located?
It had been planned for a park, but the park bonds lost.

The following was the official vote cast on the two propositions: Total vote cast, 452; for the public park, 247; against the park, 209; majority for, 47; for the city hall, 334;
against city hall, 104; majority for, 230.

As the bonds require a two-thirds vote it will be noted that the park bonds lacked 52 votes of winning out while the city hall won with 42 over the required vote.

Tujunga Fair Loses $500 According to the best estimate of the finance committee, an estimate subject to final revision when all the belated bills are in and some materials still on hand are converted into cash, the Moon Festival of the Tujungans lacked approximately $500 of paying all expenses.

Buy Tujunga Supply Co.
The business of the Tujunga Supply company was purchased Wednesday from Emmet M. Hicks by W. D.
Thatcher, O. L. Zook and G. J. Farris, and the new owners took possession last week. Mr. Zook, whose home is now in Glendale, was in the

C. of C. Puts Out Folder
The Chamber of Commerce is putting out a new folder, setting out the chief attractions of Eagle Rock as a place par excellence in which to live.

The chief features in the folder are ten half-tone pictures of the main public buildings of this city, including the bank, business block, library, club house, school buildings and three typical foothill homes.

Girl Will Not Lose Sight
Friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. T.
Theobald of Tujunga will be glad to know that their little daughter, Mary, who accidentally stuck the point of a pair of scissors in her eye last week, is making an excellent recovery and in all probability will suffer no permanent injury. The scissors penetrated the eyeball just at the edge of the iris.

Propose Investment of $750,000, South Section of Glendale

An initial investment of $750,000 in lots and moderate priced houses here is announced by Ross Fenner and Arthur M. Gilman, new operators to Glendale who will enter the local field about October 1. Mr.
Fenner resigns as secretary of the Los Angeles realty board to go into partnership with Mr. Gilman, who is known as president of the Michigan Realtors' association.

The first scene of operation will be on property bought through the W. A. Heitman company from the Richardson estate in southern Glendale where The Glendale Evening News has predicted a building boom would take place. Offices will be established both here and in Los Angeles at 28 South Hill street.

Mr. Gilman has made numerous trips to Los Angeles from his home in Michigan and he has come to the opinion that Glendale offers the best opportunity in all of the southland for development. Mr. Fenner, as secretary of the realtors, holds the same opinion, a decided compliment for this thriving city.

NIGHT CLASSES TO BE SET

Night school classes will be arranged following a meeting of the High School Board some time this week, according to an announcement this morning of A. L. Ferguson, principal of the night school. He announced a total registration of 152 persons about half of whom were women. The subjects in which the greatest interest was shown were auto shop, mechanical drawing, millinery, book-keeping, typewriting and shorthand. He stated that as many men as women had registered for the commercial subjects. However, no man indicated a preference for millinery.

VISITS GLENDALE FRIENDS

Dr. and Mrs. Horace A. Bashor of Los Angeles were in Glendale Sunday visiting old acquaintances, among them being Mr. and Mrs. H. Arthur Kresling of 706 East Elk avenue.
Mrs. Bashor was formerly Miss Gladys Slauson of Monrovia.

BIGGEST TABLECLOTH

In the linen room of Buckingham palace is a beautifully hand-woven tablecloth that was made for the coronation of Queen Victoria and is large enough to cover a table for 200 diners. It has only been used on five occasions. There is a legend that wine has never been spilt on the cloth and that it forecasts ill-luck to any one who spills wine on it.

Satisfied Board Is Trying to Relieve Crowded Conditions
A cordial spirit of co-operation was exhibited Thursday night by three Glendale citizens, who appeared before the city board of education in reference to an adjustment in school conditions in their vicinity.
They stated that they realized that the crowded condition in the school system was practically universal and that they had no desire to further complicate the problems before the school trustees by their own individual cases.
C. D. Gill lives at 1023 Virginia place. Harry Hague is a resident at 1227 South Central avenue, while the address of C. D. Gulick is near Magnolia avenue and Brand boulevard. All three of them have children in the public schools. One of Mr. Gill's boys is in the third grade, while the other is in the class higher.
At the present time it is necessary for Mr. Gill's two boys to go to the Cerritos school because the Magnolia school, which is nearer to their home, only accommodates two classes, the first and second grades which occupy one school room. Another room in the same building is not being used.
Mr. Gill stated that he did not mind the extra distance his children traveled each day as much as he did the fact that they had to cross both Central avenue and Brand boulevard, both of which are somewhat dangerous on account of the large and continual volume of automobile traffic.
He, therefore, suggested that a third and fourth grade class be installed in the empty room at the Magnolia school.
Not Enough Children
"The objection to that," remarked Richardson D. White, city superintendent, "lies in the fact that the district around the Magnolia school is only thinly populated. There are not enough children living in the vicinity to fill two regular classes. As a result, it would be necessary to transfer children from the Cerritos and Pacific schools. The parents, who live nearer these two buildings, would certainly object. Moreover, the third grade at the Cerritos school is not too full, although the fourth grade is overcrowded, and the change would accomplish little."
Mr. Gill, Mr. Hague and Mr.
Gulick all left satisfied that the board was making a determined effort to relieve the present intolerable school congestion as soon as possible. Their hearty co-operation was extended.

REAL COUNTRY FAIR OPENS TODAY AT SAN FERNANDO
Stock Exhibits Big Feature of Exposition; Other Valley
News Notes
San Fernando Valley's great new-fashioned old county fair opened at 10 o'clock this morning with the greatest array of blooded animals, industrial and farm exhibits and entertainment ever offered at any similar event in Southern California. It is Los Angeles' county's official fair, and while it is principally a San Fernando valley exposition, practically all parts of the county are represented.
A visit to the fair grounds late yesterday afternoon showed The Evening News representatives that the fair is to be all that was advertised.
A score of tents—several of them larger than those used by circuses—are spread over six square blocks, two blocks from the business center of San Fernando. The main entrance is located on Brand Boulevard. Already the many features of the fair have been described in these columns.
Store Buildings Planned
W. H. Ramsey, Burbank builder, last week superintended the setting of stakes for three store buildings on San Fernando road, 50 by 70 feet.
This leaves him a 55-foot frontage on which he intends to erect a five-story building, according to reports.
He already owns considerable property in Burbank and believes in its industrial and commercial growth.
Luscious Preserves Result
The Los Angeles Olive Growers' association at Sylmar is working on a new venture this year in the form of preserving figs. This is the second week of work and about 2000 jars have been turned out. The white variety of figs is used and a very luscious preserve is the result.
In addition to preserving figs the company is canning pimientos. This is the third year they have done this and it is proving a profitable industry to fill in before the olive season opens. The pimientos are canned whole, only the core being removed, and are called pimento cups.
Burbank Police Set Trap
As the result of a cleverly laid trap by the Burbank officers, government revenue men from Los Angeles were enabled to take into custody Harry Lees and two companions on the charge of transporting intoxicating liquors.
Did You Pick Up Pass?
Saturday and Sunday saw Captain Samuel Long flying over San Fernando valley and Southern California distributing free passes to the San Fernando valley fair from his airplane. Hundreds of motorists yesterday stopped their cars along the roadside between Glendale and Burbank to get the coveted bits of paper.
Eternal Triangle, In New Viewpoint, Shown
Palace Grand Screen Threatening the eternal triangle from a new standpoint, at once interesting and novel, "The Wild Goose," a Cosmopolitan production directed by Albert Capellani and released by Paramount, was shown at the Palace Grand theatre with no inconsiderable success yesterday.
A gay little tale of spring orchards and spring romance, young adventure and young love, was that unfolded on the screen on the same bill when Wanda Hawley was seen in her latest Realart release, "A Kiss in Time." Never has this charming little blonde comedienne been seen to better advantage.
A Burton Holmes travelogue completes the program which closes its run tonight at the popular T. D. & L. playhouse.
Prince Is Speaker at Congregational Church
The Bible is the principal text book of Chalde according to Prince Raphael Emmanuel, who spoke last night at the Congregational church garbed in his native costume, which was considered very picturesque. He stated that only about 100,000 descendants of the original Chaldeans of biblical history remain in the whole area of Mesopotamia today on account of the immigrations of Arabs, Turks and Armenians. Prince Emmanuel, himself, claims to be a lineal descendant of King Nebuchadnezzar and Nimrod. His talk was in the nature of a lecture rather than a sermon and the customs and habits of his native land, which he left soon after the war started, was his topic.
Mrs. Mary Mullin, soprano, sang
"Just for Today" at the morning services at which Rev. C. N. Calder-wood preached upon the subject of "Christianizing the Future."

LOTS SELL FAST IN RESIDENTIAL AND BUSINESS TRACT

Subdivision Between Glendale and Burbank Is Attracting Investors' Attention

Beautiful Mountain View tract, which has been put on the market this past week by the Glendale-Burbank Realty Syndicate, is attracting investors who desire residential and business property close to Glendale and Burbank's industrial districts.

As indicated, this subdivision lies between Burbank and Glendale in a strip of ground which likely will be annexed to this city at a special election to be held in the near future. It has water and the electricity, gas and street work is to be provided by the syndicate.

There are seventy lots on sale in the two long blocks fronting on Elm, Acacia and Laurel avenues between Fourth street and the San Fernando road. On the one side is bus transportation and on the other is the Glendale-Burbank line of the Pacific Electric. The cars stop at Laurel avenue.

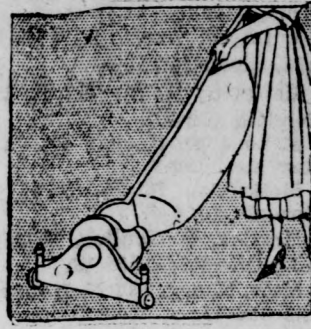

Business Block Planned

Already a two-story business block has been planned for one of the twenty-six business lots. The R. L. Kent company is preparing plans for the structure, according to W. H. Armstrong, salesmanager at the subdivision. He intends to start construction on several bungalows immediately. All of the lots are restricted on account of the desirable location.

There is an oil station, feed store, real estate office and vegetable market in the vicinity already and there are openings for a grocery store, garage, service station and other business enterprises. The Fred L. Meneley window shade factory, the U. S. Compression Inner Tube plant, the Moreland truck factory and the site of the Everready Heater company are located within walking distance.

The tract office is open every day with Mr. Armstrong in charge. His associates in the syndicate are former South Dakota men, being T. A. Thompson, director of the California bank in Los Angeles; C. A. Crissey, a Hollywood realtor, and C. J. Henderson, a South Pasadena capitalist. Mr. Armstrong resides at 104 North Central avenue, Glendale.

'The Ocean' Topic Sunday Sermon by Rev. W. E. Edmonds

"The Ocean" was the subject of the sermon at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning, Rev. W. E. Edmonds just having returned from a vacation at the seashore. Many passages of scripture were quoted relative to the topic and special emphasis was placed upon a cloud which rose out of the sea at God's command after a drought in answer to a prayer for rain. Rev. Edmonds pleaded with his congregation for faith in divine promises and said, "All true prayer comes of need."

"There is much in the Bible about the sea," said Rev. Edmonds. "John in his apocalyptic vision of the far future heard 'There shall be no more sea.'"

"If scientific knowledge goes contrary to God's word, then it's false. All things are possible with God and what He says is sure. He could stop the sun. He provided the great fish to swallow Jonah. God holds the waters in the hollow of His hand."

Walter Lyman Brown's Picture Put on Screen

Walter Lyman Brown, administrator of European relief and son of Mrs. J. D. Brown of this city who is now in London, was shown in the news pictures at the Glendale theatre Saturday. Several close-ups of this prominent Glendale citizen in conference with soviet officials were shown. The vaudeville show was good. Manager W. A. Howe being able to select acts as good as the big circuits. The Hannelle trio was a wonderful singing act.

Steel needles were first made in Britain in 1545.

OIL DEVELOPMENTS WOULD INDICATE RICH TERRITORY

Deep Test Well of Standard Company Comes In Recently on Bolsa Chica

With a production of 2,000 barrels of oil daily expected, the deep test well of the Standard Oil company came in quietly on the Torrance property on the Bolsa Chica dome recently. It is located one and one-half miles northwest of Huntington Beach on the knoll which has been looked to as the scene of new developments.

Drilling on this test well has been under way for sixteen months, delay being due to a cave-in at 2900 feet caused by gas pressure, according to reports. The Standard has spent a quarter of a million dollars probably on this one Bolsa Chica dome well. An oil editor writes as follows regarding this development:

"The Torrance well is believed to have been drilled on the edge of the anticlinal formation underlying this particular dome formation. This theory has been put forth by geologists and oil authorities, who are of the opinion that wells drilled on top of the Bolsa Chica dome should strike the oil sand at a much shallower depth. From all indications it is apparent that several lighter sands have been encountered in the test well. The deep drilling is probably due to the intent of the Standard to test thoroughly the big sand.

Scene of Excitement

"The Bolsa Chica dome has been the scene of much excitement since the discovery of oil at Huntington Beach and on Signal Hill. It is located on a line between the Signal Hill field and Huntington Beach and is the most prominent structure lying between the two fields. It has been spoken of as the big connecting formation. Conditions now point to the fact, and many who have made study of it believe a continuous oil bearing anticline runs from the Huntington Beach oil field, through the Bolsa Chica dome to the Signal Hill horizon channel. The irregularities in the depths of the producing sands in the above named fields are marked with many odd characteristics. It appears that the sub-surface structure is of a waving horizon formation with many sand dips. One great dip is noticeable on the east slope of Signal Hill in the vicinity of the Standard's Bixby well.

May Be New Field

"Does the bringing in of this well mean a great oil field with thousands of derricks dotting the landscape between Signal Hill and Huntington Beach? This is a question which oil authorities and those interested in this particular dome field are asking. It is a pertinent question, for it is said almost every available acre between Long Beach and Huntington Beach is under lease for oil.

"On the Bolsa Chica dome, Standard Oil, Petroleum Midway and the Jochen interests have firmly entrenched themselves with immense holdings. It is said that in the next thirty or forty days the Standard will have started drilling on acreage adjoining that on which the Torrance well was drilled.

"Within the next few days it is also expected that the Torrance well will be put on a production test. It is reported that an eight-inch pipe line is being laid from the main line at Huntington Beach to take care of the oil. In the meantime hundreds of Long Beach people, who own property in this region, will wait anxiously for developments in what looks like California's newest oil field. Should the well develop into a large producer, no one can estimate the extent to which it will influence the industrial life and activity of Long Beach and this entire section."

Parker's Cash Grocery and Market Now Open

Parker's Cash Grocery and Market opened Saturday in its new home at 403 West Doran street with a record throng of customers in attendance. By 5 o'clock in the afternoon practically every line of groceries in the large stock was diminished and today wholesalers are replenishing the supply. A dry goods store adjoining, presided over by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lyon, reports a good day's business also.

Bee on Toast New Entree; Fred E. Shuck Isn't Stung, However

This is a tale of music and bees and flowers!

The music might have been furnished by Fred E. Shuck if he hadn't been of an observing disposition. It wouldn't have been of the canned variety daily distributed through the Barnes-Shuck Music company, 211 North Brand boulevard, either.

The flowers were of an edible sort. Accurately speaking, they were cabbages, Spanish violets and fresh, luscious lettuce and all reposing quietly in Sam Seelig's grocery.

The bee's name is unknown. However, he had a sociable disposition.

It seems that the bee and Mr. Shuck went into the establishment at the same time Saturday morning. Both were intent upon the same purpose. Their minds were concentrated upon the acquisition of the maternal nourishment commonly known as breakfast. After a bit Mr. Bee got surfeited upon fresh greens and came over to the restaurant for dessert.

The next time Mr. Shuck looked upon his toast, it was harboring aforesaid bee.

No, Mr. Shuck did not get stung, positively.

"Say," said he, "I didn't order any meat with this toast!"

"What's the matter?" asked G. H. Smith, "didn't you want honey with your toast? We advertise that all our products are pure and fresh. What more do you want?"

Judge Cox Says Something

Justice of the Peace J. B. Cox at Santa Ana in trying to popularize his anti-speed program recently in a speech at Los Angeles is quoted as having said that of the army of 1,200,000 motor operators "50 per cent are incompetent, blind or deaf, children or women." Bebe Daniels now can realize why she got ten days. Unfortunately she is in the last classification.

Big Bank Merger Reported

As the result of a merger announced on Saturday Los Angeles will have a bank with resources totalling more than $148,000,000. It will be not only the largest bank in this city but also the largest west of Chicago operating in a single locality. The merger is that of the Security Trust and Savings bank, the Guaranty Trust and Savings bank and the Long Beach Trust and Savings bank.

U. S. S. California Coming

The California, the pride of the American navy, will make its first visit to a California port at Venice a week from Saturday. Venice is the first California city to furnish sailors to the great battleship, which is manned exclusively by California boys. Out of sixty men who enlisted from the beach city, thirty-one were accepted and they will be aboard when the big vessel visits Venice.

Santa Anita Rancho on Sale

On October 6, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, 1300 acres of Big Santa Anita canyon land, the property of Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin, will be offered for sale at public auction. C. H. O'Connor will be the auctioneer and has received orders to proceed with the sale. A description of the land, which is located at Valley boulevard and Santa Anita avenue, Arcadia, shows it as being fruit land, but as an ideal spot for a resort of some description.

Prune Growers Reorganize

The California Prune and Apricot Growers' association, the reorganized California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc., which represents more than 82 per cent of the prune acreage and 75 per cent of the apricot acreage of the state, officially came into existence Wednesday when the first meeting of its voting board was held at San Jose.

A floating exposition of American industries will be housed on a great ship especially constructed, in which anything from dredges to silk handkerchiefs can be demonstrated. At sea the decks close in and it is an ordinary ship. In port the decks slide outward, providing an area equal to the space of ten city blocks. The first cruise will be to the far east.

The Founding of a New Great Oil Field!

STANDARD'S TORRANCE WELL

STRIKES OIL

ON BOLSA CHICA DOME

Thousands Have Waited For This Great News!

THE slush pits are running with OIL! Since the hour the drill broke into the rich oil sand, the tremendous pressure from beneath has forced several times the oil high up the derrick! Standard's great deep test TORRANCE WELL has proven for oil the BOLSA CHICA DOME—the greatest dome structure between Signal Hill and Huntington Beach oil fields. It has proven for oil the connecting link between TWO of the greatest producing and potential oil fields in California!—possibly a new district rivaling or surpassing either.

WE ARE FIRST!

and original company selling potential oil lots. We have many imitators but none of them can sell you lots in a PROVEN FIELD—leased to THE STANDARD OIL CO.

A Fair, Square Deal

We have conducted a clean campaign—free from MIS-REPRESENTATIONS or EX-TRAVAGANT STATEMENTS. We invite the fullest investigation of our methods—our proposition and our property.

Don't Buy If It Means a Hardship

From the first we have repeatedly stated that any oil speculation was a gamble—and while it now seems that the PROVING OF BOLSA CHICA DOME has practically eliminated all the risk—we still say—don't buy unless you are able to take a chance—but a chance that is on the level.

Our Big Comfortable Busses Leave Cor. Brand & W. Broadway Promptly at 10:30 o'clock Starting Wednesday and Every Day Excepting Monday As Long As the Few Lots Last.

Oil Authorities Predict at Least a 2,000 Barrel Well!

No one can say at this moment just HOW LARGE the well may be. Practical oil men, who have been at the well since it struck the oil sand, estimate it from 2,000 to 5,000 barrels daily. A heavy T valve has been thrown into place to keep down the tremendous gas pressure—a significant indication of what the well may produce. The perforated casing is to be lowered into the sand. The sluice boxes and the sumps are already running full with the black liquid gold.

And OUR 30 ACRES, leased to the same great company—STANDARD OIL—is only 200 yards from the property on which the great TORRANCE WELL stands! We consider every one of these acres proven. Furthermore, STANDARD OIL must drill on THIS acreage by October the 28th or abrogate the lease; a lease that may be worth millions! We have contended all along that "Standard Oil knows the oil business." Do you question it NOW? No one does!

AND STILL THE OLD PRICE OF $500 BUYS A LOT TODAY--

Why Gamble in "Oil Stock"? Why Buy Wild-Cat Lots Leased to Inexperienced, Poorly Financed Companies, When You Can Buy

LOTS IN A PROVEN OIL FIELD Leased to the Great Standard Oil Co.

There are only a few lots left! Think of the opportunity to OWN the land—land which may, within a few months, be worth many thousands of dollars. Lots in Huntington Beach and Signal Hill which could have been bought a short time ago for a few hundred dollars are today selling for Tens of Thousands! It has happened on both sides—how about YOUR LOTS in between, almost within a stone's throw of the great Torrance Well!

And bear in mind that every single lot purchased entitles the owner to share pro rata in every barrel of oil taken from the entire 30 acres—no matter on which lots the wells may be drilled, or the number of wells drilled. All lot owners will share alike in any and all royalty.
